

Out of Pocket Expenses:

Out-of-pocket expenses are direct outlays of cash which are not reimbursed. This amount is usually capped on an individual or family level. Expenses contributing toward the Out of Pocket Expense include deductibles and coinsurances. Most plans cap the amount of Out of Pocket Expense by providing an Out of Pocket Maximum for in-network care.