

Usual, Customary, Reasonable (UCR):

The fee level determined by the administrator from actual submitted fees for a specific procedure to establish the maximum benefit payable under a given plan for that specific procedure. This is the amount that the insurance company determines to best reflect the cost of a procedure in your area.